

SCOTTYSANDERS

HELPING YOU LEAD WELL

LIFE
ON A
3X5

- Too many people feel overwhelmed and discouraged
- This leads to a lack of purpose, focus and satisfaction

I have compressed my entire leadership career and decades of executive coaching experience into simple, effective actions that will help anyone transform their life from “crazy-busy” to “super productive” in only 10 minutes a day.

- Take 1% of each day for vision and action
- You won’t believe how much better the other 99% goes!

YOUR AUDIENCE WILL:

- Learn how to overcome busyness and become highly productive with a simple plan for daily success
- See and seize the possibilities within themselves
- Have the confidence to simplify so that they can amplify what is most important to them

Scotty Sanders did an amazing job with our team. His keynote had stories that were engaging and memorable. He also shared impactful content that could be easily implemented. The most impressive thing, Scotty is real. He served us onstage and offstage from the moment we began working with him.

Brad Warden
SkyRider Communications

Scotty connects easily with any audience. He has an engaging communication style that motivates and inspires. I have utilized Scotty for several years to assist in the leadership development of my management team. I highly recommend Scotty!

Paul Dietzler
President of Bath-Window Expo

Scotty Sanders will keep you on the edge of your seat and everyone will gain enlightenment from his enthusiastic presentation. His keynote is very inspiring yet practical and leaves you motivated to take action steps not only in your professional life but personally. Any business or association would benefit tremendously from having Scotty speak.
